Dedication

TO BETTY DUSTIN MYERS - -

As the shadows deepen in our growing lives,
There yet remains a burning light - -
A ray of brightness to our half-closed eyes,
Giving guidance and strength to us in flight.

So is there here a faithful guide - -
A reflection of warmth and glowing heart,
Shedding the radiance of understanding so wide - -
To each and all is given a part.

To repay this kindness is beyond our reach;
But one small tribute do we give:
This DEDICATION - - not through word or flowery speech - -
But through this Deed, the light will ever live.

Some of our fondest memories of Monticello can be visualized in a glance at Fountain Court.

As we passed through this portal, we sought to follow Our Guiding Light.

Democracy

CAROL GILLASPIE

The truly democratic person interests herself in the activities of others. She seeks to understand and respect the ideals and beliefs of her associates while maintaining her own independence of thought and action.

Ideals

With hearts aware of beauty, loyalty, and dignity, minds ever striving for wisdom and democracy, and willing hands to offer service and friendship to all, the seven girls pictured on these pages have been chosen from the class of 1957 by vote of their classmates to represent these seven ideals of Monticello.

Dignity

JANICE HAGY

This is a quality of reserve which comes with emotional, intellectual, and social maturity. Dignity is always reflected in the recognition of the fitness of things and in the poise and self-confidence with which one places one's self above that which might be considered unseemly.

Loyalty

CAROLYN VAUGHT

One of the most important of the Monticello Ideals is a loyalty to the college, one's friends, one's family, and one's beliefs. This deep-seated emotion will grow through understanding, respect, and love.

Beauty

GALE EDDIE

Within each girl is the power to recognize and appreciate the beauty of everyday experiences. Life is filled with beauty if one is sensitive to it and eager to find it; if one's eyes are trained to see, one's ears to hear, one's heart to understand, and one's mind to remember.

Friendship

DONNA JONES

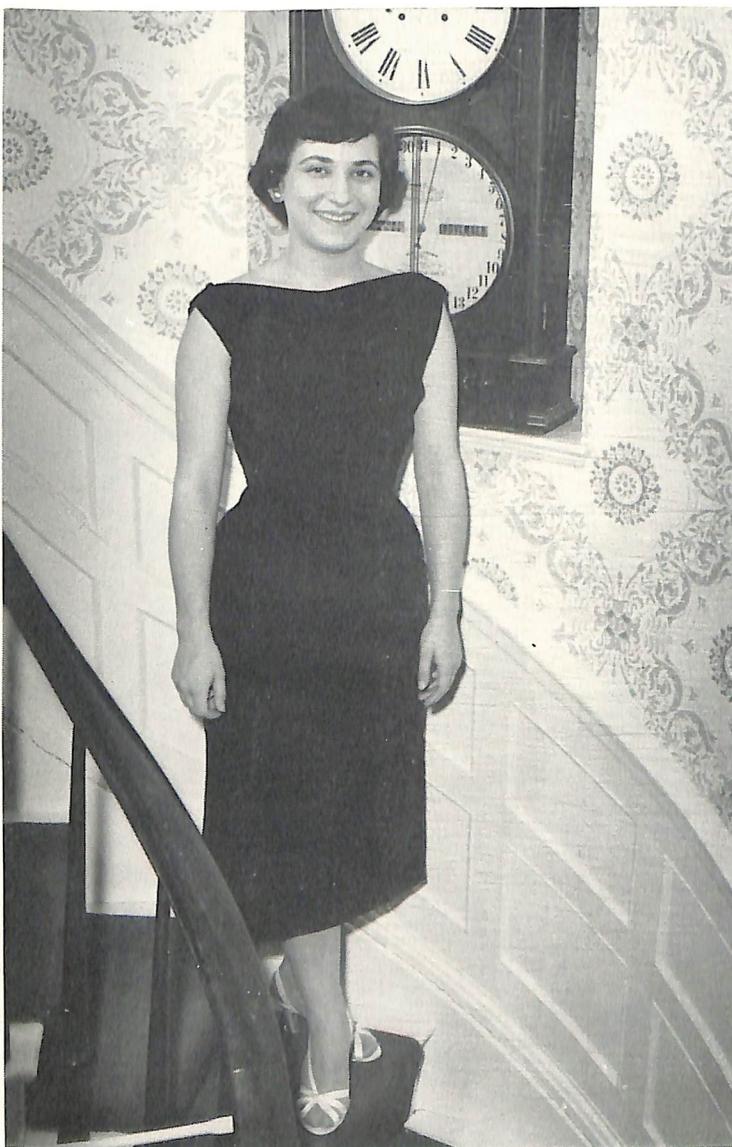

Many of your most cherished and lasting friendships will be made while you are at Monticello. Your college days will afford rich opportunities for making a wide circle of friends. In true friendship there is dignity, loyalty, service, democracy, beauty, and never-failing consideration.

Service

VLADA ROUSSEFF

Each of us has a distinctive personality and unique talents. The Monticello girl considers it not only a privilege but a responsibility to share her gifts with all, thereby helping herself and others to develop to the fullest measure.

Wisdom

SUSAN BECKER

As the Monticello girl grows in academic stature, she seeks to increase her ability to apply her knowledge usefully, for wisdom is the union of knowledge and understanding.

Rays of Wisdom

Beneath the shades of our library's lamps, we, the students, faculty members, and staff, sought to find the truth upon which we could direct our thoughts of life.

Russell T. Sharpe

B.S., HARVARD COLLEGE
PH.D., STANFORD UNIVERSITY

To The Classes of 1957:

I am happy to have this opportunity to extend to the graduating classes of Monticello College and Monticello Preparatory School my congratulations upon your splendid contributions to life at Monticello. You have not only grown in wisdom yourselves; but you have advanced the standards of the school, opened new vistas for the students who will follow you, and upheld the finest traditions of your predecessors.

The real test of Monticello's influence upon you must await the passing of time. If your years at Monticello have been instrumental in changing your attitudes and behavior in a socially desirable direction, the way in which you serve your family, your community, your nation and your school will, in the years ahead, be the real measure of what you have learned at Monticello.

The faculty and staff are confident that you will meet this test with distinction and that your lives will bring further honors to the school which has had the privilege of helping to prepare you for your complex role in American society. We all extend to you our most affectionate and best wishes as you leave Monticello and join the long line of alumnae whose first members graduated nearly a century and a quarter ago. We know you will be worthy of your heritage.

RUSSELL T. SHARPE,

Russell Sharpe
President

Board of Trustees

Seated: Mrs. Buel McNeil; Mrs. George Sparks Milnor; Mrs. Spencer T. Olin; Mrs. John Raeburn Green.

Standing: Karl K. Hoagland; Leslie M. Lyon; Marshall W. Acker; D. Howard Doane; Chairman; Russell T. Sharpe; M. Ryrie Milnor.

The capable men and women of our Board of Trustees have as their responsibility the general administration of Monticello College.

The time and energy of this efficient group are freely given every year toward the handling of finances and the supervision of many college matters. The board meets on the Monticello campus once every two months. D. Howard Doane, as chairman, heads the board of which the College President is automatically a member ex-officio. Trustees not pictured include Mrs. Theodore S. Chapman, Mrs. William Wood Parsons, Miss Mary Pfeifferberger, Eben Rodgers, Sr., Spencer T. Olin, J. Preston Levis, Huston Smith, Edmund Morgenstern.

ADMINISTRATION

The Administration of Monticello is well equipped to direct the numerous affairs of the college. Working with the student-governing bodies, they provide the students with a well-planned academic and social program. It is through their efforts that the high standards of Monticello are carried on from year to year.

Basic Design

One of the major highlights of the year for Mr. Madden's basic design students was a field trip to the City Art Museum of St. Louis. Basic design is an elementary art course intended to provide a foundation for those who want to study art simply for enjoyment and for those who intend to continue their study in specialized schools.

Painting

Mr. Rousseff's painting course included experiments in a variety of techniques. Water color, tempera, chalk, pastels, and oils were included. Numerous creative projects were undertaken in easel, mural, and portrait painting. Subject matter was derived both from nature and abstractions with stress on organization and design.

Sculpturing and Ceramics

Mr. Arnold's ceramics and sculpturing course was popular with would-be professionals and hobbyists alike. Demonstrations, lectures, and slides were provided to guide the students in their work. Enameling in copper was a special project of the class which provided many Christmas gifts for family and friends.

Music

Mr. Kuhn and Mr. Oldham provide opportunities for Monticello students to develop appreciation for and skills in music through courses of instruction, private lessons, and membership in the choir.

Home Economics

Mrs. Grandfield's courses in home economics were of special interest to those girls wishing to gain a better understanding of nutrition, clothing construction, and general home planning.

FACULTY

Monticello is very proud of its carefully chosen faculty, whose primary interest is the student. An advisory program enables each student to receive personal counsel on both her academic and social problems from a member of the faculty whose time is freely available to her. Through day-by-day contact with the students, an atmosphere of understanding and intimacy is established between the faculty members and the student body.

Staff

Monticello's staff members contribute a wide variety of services to the faculty and students. Two main branches of these services are the maintenance of the Monticello Bank and Bookstore.

The Bookstore carries textbooks, classroom supplies, cosmetics, confections, gifts, cards, magazines, and incidental room furnishings. It also acts as agent for an Alton cleaning establishment which picks up and delivers cleaning through the Bookstore. Arrangements can also be made for the repair of radios, lamps and clocks. Students may open charge accounts, payable monthly, at the Bookstore.

The Business Office operates the Monticello Bank where students may deposit and maintain their own checking account without charge. The College urges all students to keep only a small amount of cash on their person or in their rooms to reduce the possibility of loss or theft for which the College cannot be responsible.

Food Committee

Representatives chosen from the college juniors, college seniors, and Preparatory classes, working with Mr. Goodman as their advisor, have attempted to improve the meal planning and kitchen efficiency through the consideration of the suggestions offered by the student body.

Kay Boortz, student waitress, serves lunch to the waiting students.

Student Employment

Students are employed in various departments of Monticello College such as the post office, library, dining room, and administrative offices. Preference is given to those needing financial assistance or to those girls who have received work scholarships. Earnings are paid directly to the student who may apply them against her tuition or use them for her own personal expenses.

Sandra Sathre gives Sue Lloyd her package which has been delivered to the Monticello Post Office.

Judy Wood and Sandra Sathre illustrate how the mail is sorted and distributed to each student's individual box.

Student Council

The Student Council, under the grant of power from the administration, enacts and enforces rules, transacts business, and represents the general interests of the students so as to maintain a higher standard of social living in the college and a spirit of mutual understanding and co-operation between the student body and the college administration. The Student Council also acts as the governing body of the Student Association, which aims to coordinate the student government and activity programs. The four major officers of the Student Council are chosen by the entire student body. The board is comprised of the heads of the major organizations including class presidents, house chairmen, M.C.A. and the editors of Times and Echo. The Student Council functions under the guidance of the advisor, Mrs. Florence Duree.

House Council

The House Council promotes democracy on the Monticello campus as it helps each girl realize and accept her own responsibilities. Some of the projects carried out by this group include determining house policies, altering and improving existing regulations, and enforcing the necessary college rules. The members have the responsibility for seeing that the dormitory functions for the best interests of all. Composing the House Council are two elected senior House Chairmen, the vice-presidents of the senior and junior classes, the proctors from each college floor, and one of the residence counselors.

Seated: Dr. Cooke, advisor; Judy Orr; Jan Hagy; editor of ECHO; Jonette Rippe, Reba Adair.

Publications

The Echo is the college yearbook written, edited and published by students under the direction of the advisor, Paul Cooke, and editor-in-chief, Jan Hagy. The Echo staff has attempted to present to the student body a lasting record of Monticello 1956-57. The main purpose of this year's annual is to seek to enlighten the student's mind to all aspects of Our Guiding Light by assembling a memory book of all phases of Monticello life in words and pictures.

The Times is the official student newspaper of Monticello College and Preparatory School. Every three weeks the paper reports on campus activities, social, academic and sports highlights. Under the supervision of Elmer Broz and the senior editor-in-chief, Nancy McCaig, the Times staff, with its news editors, feature editors, sports editors and Prep editors has put in many hours of time to publish a complete and accurate record of Monticello's accomplishments and activities for the year.

Seated: Carolyn Vaught; Nancy McCaig, editor of TIMES; Mr. Elmer Broz, advisor; Kathy Yeisley, Prep editor; Judy Sayles; Vlada Rousseff.

Social Cabinet

The Social Cabinet is of vital interest to every student. Monthly dances, informal parties, campus movies, lectures, and guest artist appearances were part of the year-round campus program planned by the cabinet under the guidance of its three social chairmen: Susanne Moulton, Mary Gordon, Gretchen Jehle, and the Social Director, Mrs. Duree. The horse show, the swimming pageant, and guest weekends for alumnae, dates, and high school friends presented the excuse for many a party.

The Monticello bus rolled off campus on weekends for football games at Illinois or Missouri Universities, for parties and fraternity dances, for plays, and for frequent shopping excursions to Clayton or St. Louis.

George Washington Banquet and Ball

The Junior Committee consists of a group of junior girls elected by their classmates in November to serve as the governing body of their class until the election of permanent class officers takes place in February. This group, under the leadership of the chairman, vice-chairman, secretary and treasurer, worked with the class advisor, Mrs. Florence Duree, in planning the annual George Washington Banquet and Ball held on February 23, 1956. This year's George Washington Banquet and Ball was centered around the theme "Perfume Panorama," with the dining room, Grand Central, the smoker, and the gym each representing different perfumes. All of the members of Junior Committee were appointed chairmen of smaller committees, which were responsible for a certain project concerned with the dance or dinner. Every girl in the junior class had some hand in making the banquet and ball a success. The girls on the Junior Committee were merely the organizers.

Junior Committee

The perfume Shanghai presents an exotic atmosphere for the banquet.

"The Land of the Dragon"

Chinese gongs and oriental music made their influence dominate this year in the drama department's major production, "The Land of the Dragon," a children's play by Madge Miller. Oriental costumes were especially designed for the play by an authority on Chinese customs.

Two performances were given at the chapel; several were trooped to local and surrounding schools; and finally it was produced on television.

"The Land of the Dragon," directed by Mrs. A. N. Sullivan, offered more than the usual audience entertainment as the exciting oriental panorama unfolded.

Twenty-first (Karin Kehl), Twenty-second (Marilyn Wilson), and Twenty-third (Nicole Puzin) Cousins tell Jade Pure (Barbara Cantrell) that she is much too ugly to leave her room to roam the fields.

Twenty-first Cousin, (Karin Kehl) and Twenty-fourth Cousin (Carol Ringhausen) aid Small One (Ann Hayes) to place her dragon head on correctly.

Precious Harp (Phyllis McCampbell), Jade Pure's mean aunt, discusses affairs of state with the Chancellor Covet Spring (Marty Mount).

Gale Eddie, Vlada Rousseff, Susan Becker, Jan Hagy, Carolyn Vaught.

Phi Theta Kappa

Leadership, scholarship, and service are stressed by Monticello's Eta Psi chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, an honorary national scholastic society for junior colleges.

Membership is open to those students in the upper ten per cent of the school who excel in citizenship and academic work.

Edith Doane Barnett Award

Mr. D. Howard Doane, chairman of the Board of Trustees, has established this award, in honor of his sister, to be presented annually to the College student who, in the opinion of the students, staff, and faculty, has willingly and sincerely contributed the most service to others.

In 1956 the Edith Doane Barnett Award was presented to Barbara Cantrell during the commencement ceremony. Her name was inscribed on the plaque which hangs in the south corridor of Baldwin Hall under the inscription:

"As one stone turns the direction of a stream,
So one kind deed may change the course of a life."

Godfrey Memorial Chapel

Monticello, although non-sectarian, is founded on Christian principles. Every Tuesday and Friday mornings a time has been designated during which all students attend a short devotional service in the Godfrey Memorial Chapel planned by the Monticello Christian Association.

Twice a month Vesper Services are conducted in the Chapel on Sunday evenings by visiting clergymen of various faiths who seek to stimulate the student's thoughts in reverence. Sunday morning services are presented in the chapel by the pastor of the First Congregational Church of Godfrey. The girls may also attend the church of their choice in Alton on Sunday mornings.

Monticello Christian Association

The Monticello Christian Association is one of the largest and most active organizations on campus. The group's activities were planned by a cabinet under the guidance of the faculty advisor, Miss Marlow.

During the past year the members have done volunteer work with the Girl Scouts, Alton Hospital and local schools, and have conducted services at several local churches on special occasions. M.C.A. also directed the United Fund Drive and sponsored an Easter egg hunt at the Catholic Orphanage. The members were especially busy around Christmas time when their main event of the year, the Doll Dinner, was held.

A Preparatory and College student committee, advised by Miss Gloria Brinkley, planned the United Fund Drive sponsored by M.C.A.

Triple Trio

Seated: Marilyn Elkouri, Margaret Galligan.
Standing: Judy Sayles, Jonette Rippe, Kay Dalby, Frances Malley, Susan Pifko, Nanci-Ames Early, Patricia Giggal.

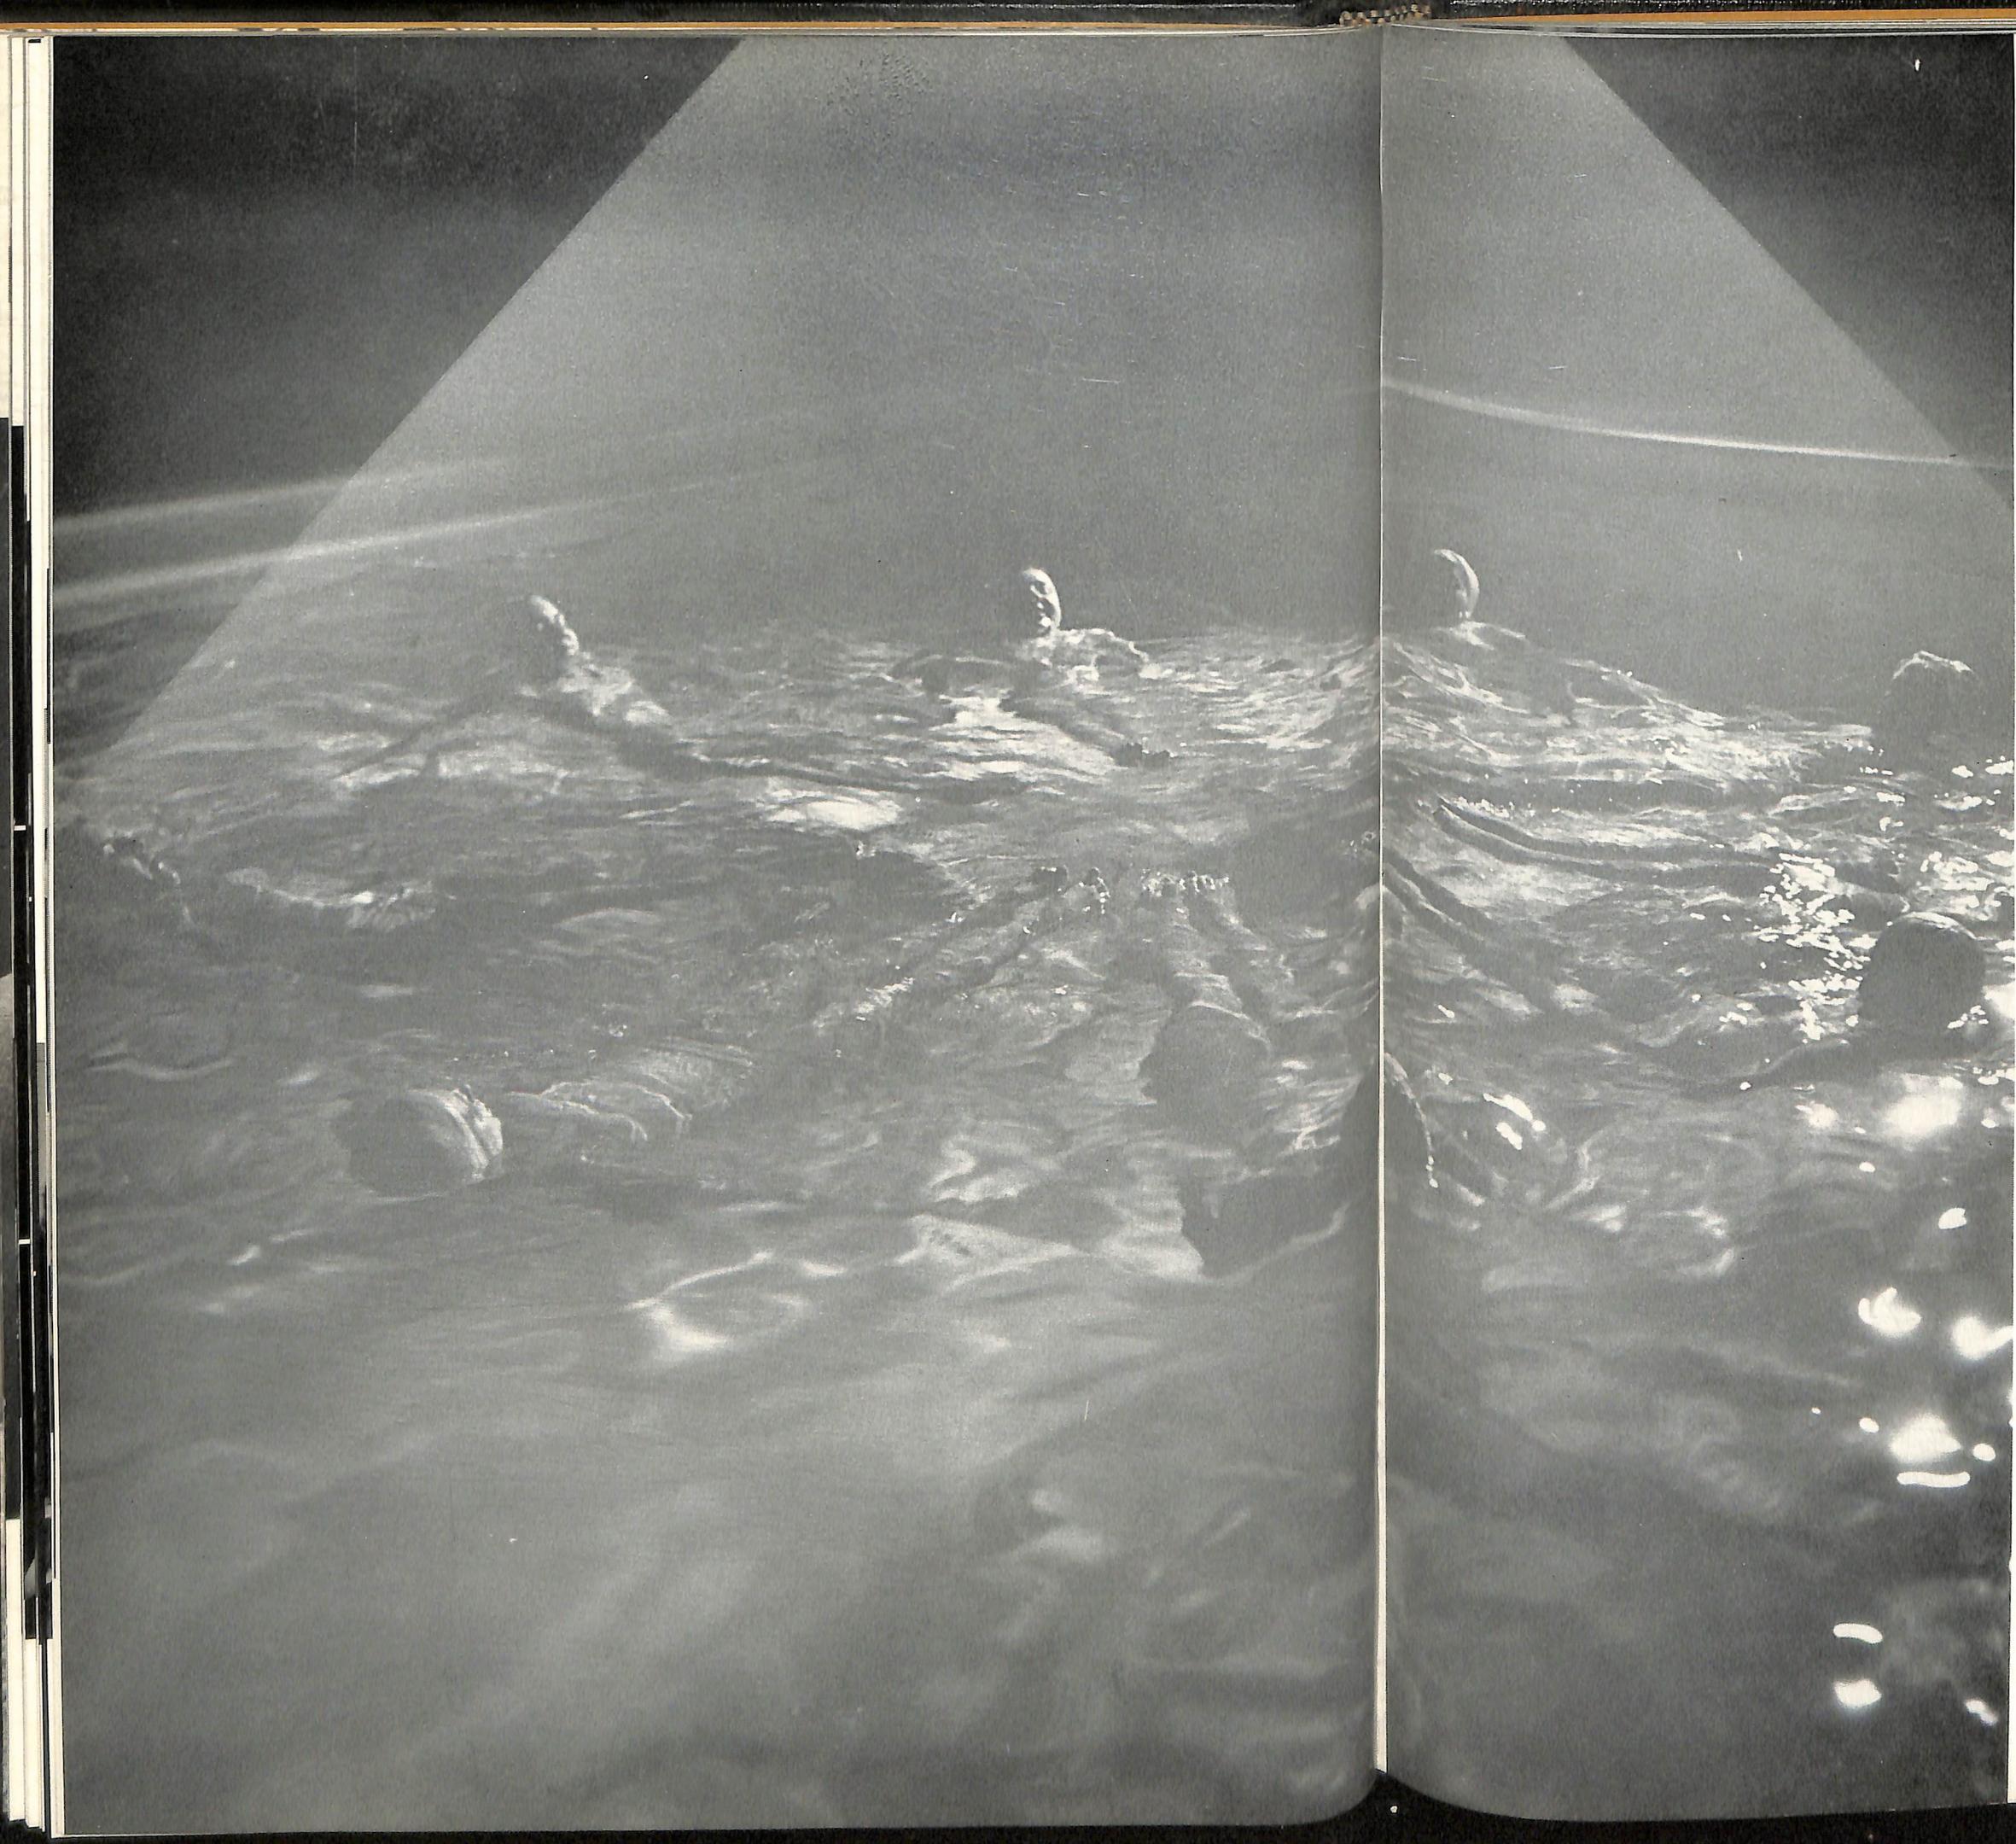

The Monticello College Choir contributed much to the Vesper services on Sunday evenings throughout the year. Also, during the Christmas season, the choir presented the Christmas Candlelight Service. The annual commencement concert is given in June at which time the new choir officers are announced. The Triple Trio, selected from members of the choir, sang selections for the Candlelight Service, Doll Dinner, variety shows and made various special appearances — one of which was a television performance in St. Louis.

Monticello Athletic Association

The purpose of the Monticello Athletic Association is to help each student grow physically, mentally, and morally by stimulating sincere interest in athletics.

The M.A.A. Board composed of elected officers and the managers of the various sports, provides an active voluntary sports program, giving each Monticello girl a chance to participate in the sports of her choice and to develop sportsmanship. The Board also promotes competitive sports programs with other schools in the surrounding area, including playdays at Fontbonne, Harris Teacher's College, Lindenwood, Principia, and Marvville.

Behind: Karen Nelson; Susan Pifko; Kay Bethel; Judy Pierson; Edith Colt; Carol Gillaspie.

Get those rebounds Monti!

Basketball

The varsity basketball team's members are chosen on the basis of their ability, interest, and regular participation in the basketball voluntary program which is emphasized during the winter sports season. Monticello competes with colleges in the surrounding area. Miss Celia Hutton assisted this group in their training program.

Standing: Anita Riggs, Martha Christiansen, Carolyn Vaught, Susan Pifko, Jane Helm, Doris Katzman, Elsa Szold.

Kneeling: Carole Finney, Marilyn Mauney, Judy Pierson, Silvia Alvarez.

Volleyball

Over the net, kids!!

The volleyball season starts about three weeks before Christmas and continues through February. This year the team participated in play days at near-by colleges as well as games at home. Miss Lee Paris assisted this group in their training program.

Hockey

The hockey season began when the students arrived on campus in September and continued through the first part of December.

Although there were no Varsity Hockey games this year, the Junior-Senior Class Tournament was the highlight of the season. A series of two out of three games were played. The Junior Team won the first game, the second game was tied, and the third game was played to determine the winner. The Senior Team came out victoriously.

About twenty Monti girls attended a hockey exhibition at Principia led by Miss Applebee, who introduced hockey in the United States in 1901. Hockey teams from the surrounding area were instructed in the correct methods of playing. Voluntary hockey brought a good percentage of those who played in class onto the field after school; Miss Celia Hutton was the hockey director.

Keep your eye on that ball!

These girls presented one of the syncopated numbers in the Marlin Pageant.

Qualified swimmers are selected for membership in Marlin Club during spring and fall tryouts. The purpose of this club is to promote an interest in synchronized swimming.

As their annual project, the club staged a colorful water pageant in the spring. This year the theme was "Heaven Sent" carried out through the colors of the rainbow as seen through the eyes of the "littlest angel". The club also participated in swimming events at colleges in the surrounding area.

Miss Beverly Mackin was the advisor for Marlin Club with Judy Wood as president of the organization.

Marlin Club

Horseback riding is a popular sport with Monticello students. For those girls interested in riding, an invitation to membership in Hobby Horse is an honor. The purpose of this club is to further its members' knowledge of horses and equitation.

Programs and activities of Hobby Horse this year included informal discussions with outstanding trainers of the St. Louis area, exchange meets at nearby colleges, and taking trips in the St. Louis area to ride and to observe shows.

Reba Adair makes the jump in fine shape!

Hobby Horse

Standing: Doris Katzman; Adele Topolosky; Judy Finney; Karen Nelson; Anita Riggs.
Sitting: Frances Malley; Sally Jo Lockwood; Marilyn Carle.

Voluntary Sports

Monticello's campus and climate allow students to enjoy some form of recreation in any season. Bicycling, tennis, golf, archery, softball, modern dance, fencing, and badminton are available. Interest is stimulated through the Voluntary Sports Program.

The thud of the softball on the bat is a sign of spring at Monticello.

Tennis enthusiasts approve the hard-surfaced courts.

Bicycle riding is especially popular in early fall and spring. The bicycles are provided by Bicycle Club.

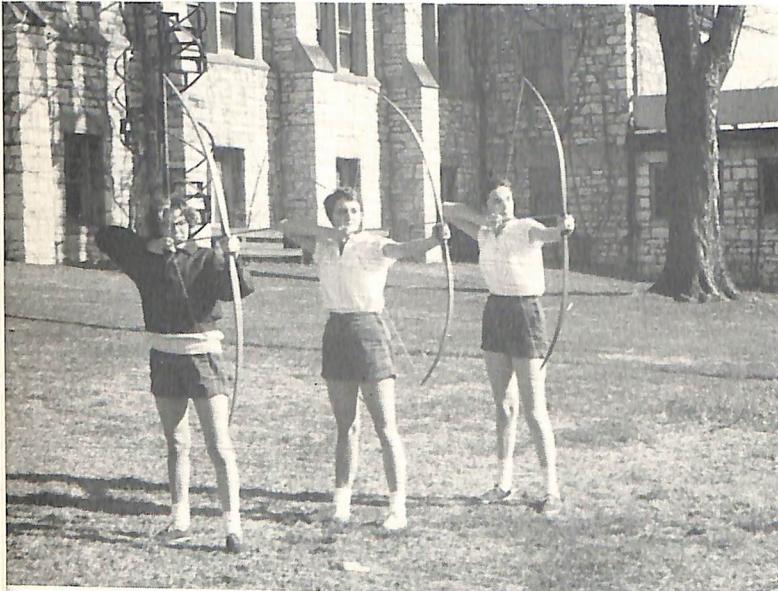

These girls are developing a strong arm and a steady eye during archery practice.

The correct serving procedure in badminton is demonstrated to interested players.

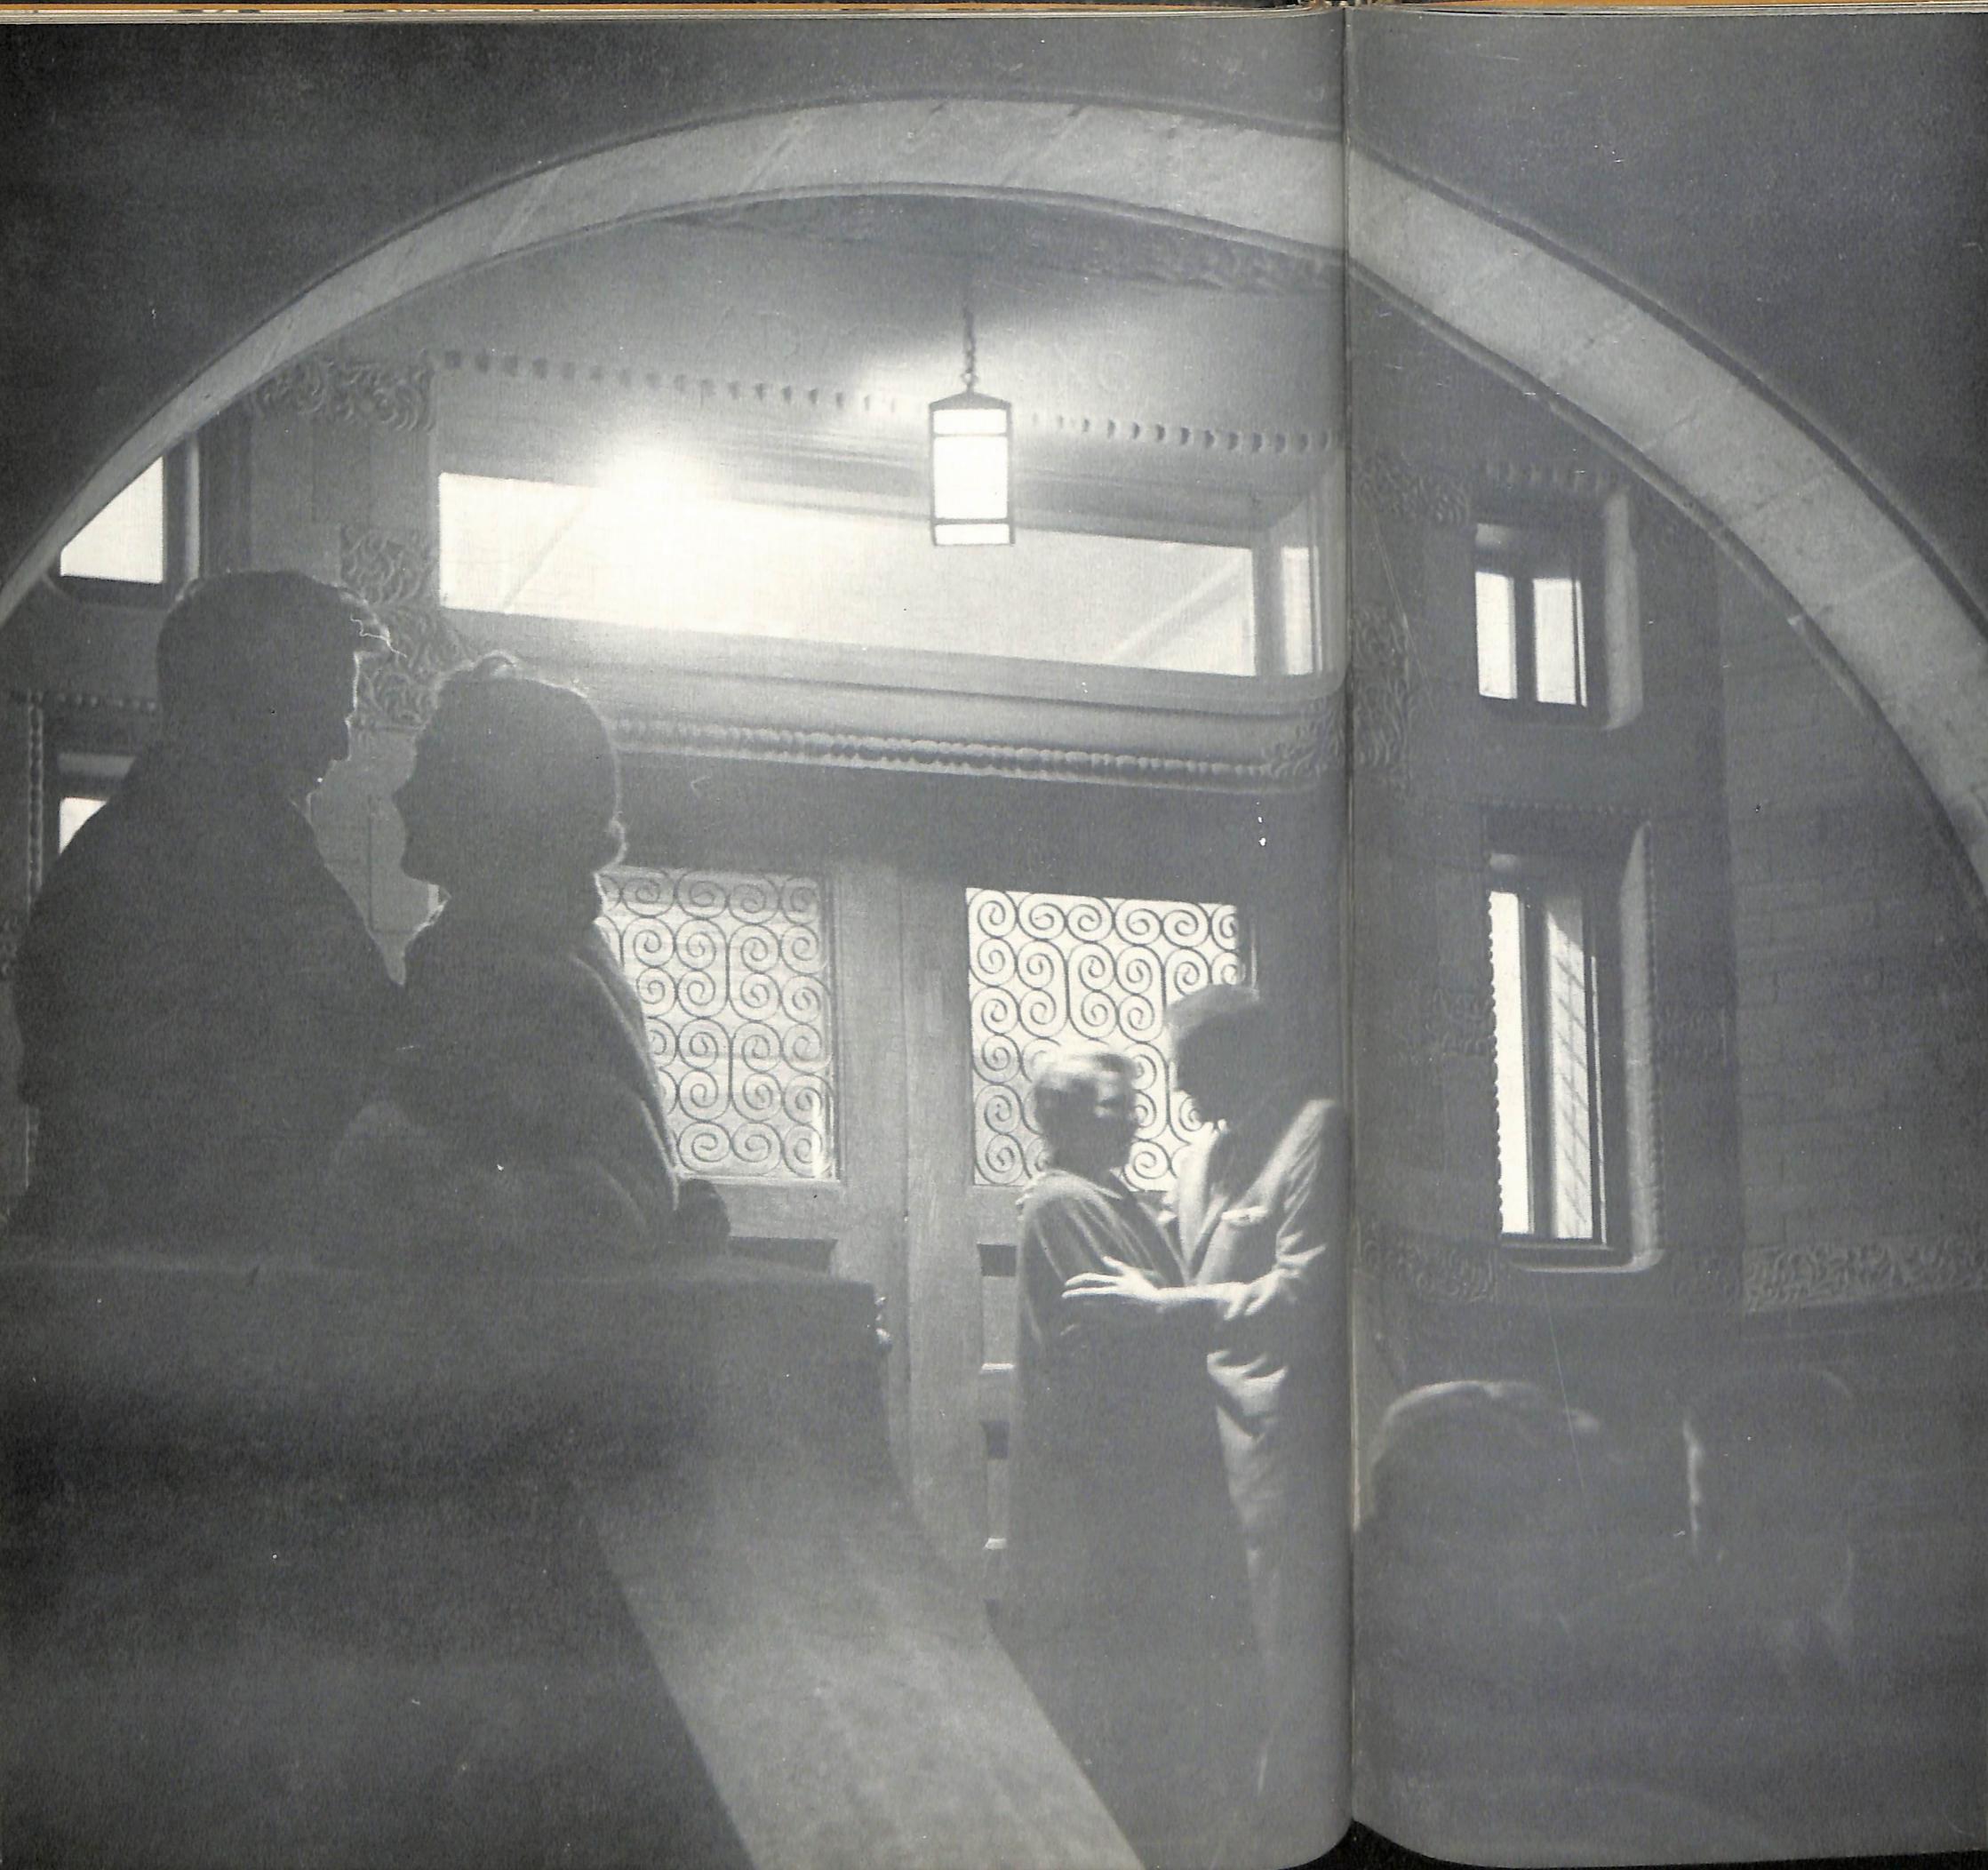

Modern dance increases grace and poise as well as developing coordination in movement.

The four-hole golf course on the Monticello campus gives the girls a chance to improve their game.

Fencing bouts provide much excitement during class tournaments.

Memories Glitter

Blinking lights and soft shadows bring to mind memories of this year's special activities.

Junior - Senior Week

A major event of the school year was Junior-Senior week, during which the juniors were put through their "paces" by exacting seniors. It was a week of fun during which everyone became better acquainted. The juniors learned much about the history of the school in order to pass the Junior Exam given one night during the week. The week's program was planned by the Heavenly Eleven and was climaxed by the Senior Variety Show.

Standing: Julianne Bendix; Sally Hart; Kay Geruldsen; Marilyn Praught.
Sitting: Liz Abney; Sharon Armstrong; Barbara Cratz; Doris Onthank; Pat Lackey.

Liz Abney and Pat Lackey announce the coming of the Senior Variety Show.

Narrator St. Peter (Reba Adair) calls the Heavenly Roll.

Senior Variety Show

The Senior Variety Show, climaxing Junior-Senior Week, was an enormous success. Each act was centered around the theme of "This is Heaven," with St. Peter as the narrator. A few of the acts presented were: Entrance to Heaven, a modern dance followed by the welcoming committee of an angel chorus line, a lost "Stranger in Paradise," Heavenly House Council, Musical Misfit, Heavenly Virtues, Paradise Pals, and a view of the "downstairs smoker." To the heavenly strains of "Magnificent Obsession," Heavenly Eleven was announced, and the curtain closed to the singing of "You'll Never Walk Alone," ending the long hours of hard work and the many memories which went into making the variety show a hit.

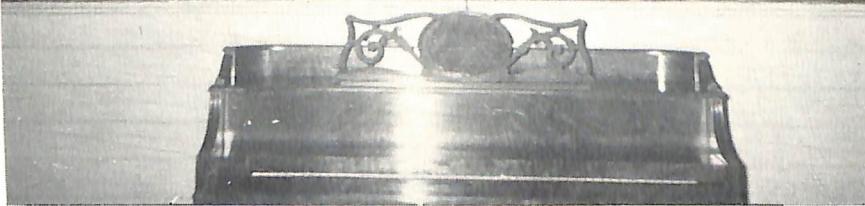

Fran Malley and Jonette Rippe imitate the Heavenly virtues of Patience and Prudence.

Orientation Week

Student Council members acquaint the new juniors with the procedures and rules of campus life.

Sponsor spreads were quite successful in helping juniors and seniors get acquainted.

Each new junior is greeted with a friendly welcome from her sponsor.

The juniors have an opportunity to meet informally with faculty members at the cabin party.

Recognition Service

On the Sunday after the George Washington Banquet the juniors were formally recognized as a class during an evening candlelight service in the Chapel.

The scroll was passed on to the junior class and the junior's candles were lighted from the senior's candles, symbolizing the carrying on of the spirit and traditions of Monticello from year to year.

Doll Dinner

The Doll Dinner is the most important project of the Monticello Christian Association. This formal banquet takes place every year just before Christmas. Following the banquet the Christmas Candlelight Service is presented in the Chapel. Every girl and many of the faculty members and alumnae of Monticello bring dolls which are collected and distributed to the needy children in the Alton area.

Dr. Sharpe speaks to Monti students and guests.

Preparatory School Director

Miss Betty Dustin Myers, better known as "Dusty," is Associate Director of the Preparatory Student Council. She assists in any problem the council might have and lends a helping hand to all. She has been a member herself of the Monticello Preparatory Student Body in 1944 and in 1945 and knows just how students feel when they are faced with a problem.

Flato, Williams, Brockett, Fletcher, Wier, Boldes, West, Merchant, Haren, Darling, Howdle, Fairchild, Wallace, Bundesen, Bailey.

Student Council

The hardworking Preparatory Student Council, consisting of fifteen members, intelligently and efficiently regulates the activities of the student body. This governing group works in conjunction with the faculty and administration to the advantage of every girl. Each member, chosen by the students, is a representative from either her class, her house, or a significant organization on campus. The Student Council meets every Monday to discuss or act on problems which have arisen during the week and to suggest new ideas which benefit the Preparatory School. Miss Betty Dustin Myers serves as the faculty advisor for the group.

Merchant, Bailey, Haren

Social Committee

The Preparatory Social Cabinet, consisting of three chairmen from the senior class, plan the various social events throughout the year. The committee organizes weekend entertainment, plans dances, and has charge of the dining room hostessing program. With the help of Miss Bonnie Jean Royer, the Social Director, the chairmen succeed in providing entertainment for every occasion.

Morgan, Kiser, Howdle, Fletcher, Hunter, Simpkins

Echo Staff

In October, 1956, when most of you were thinking June was years away, the Echo Staff was already at work. June is almost here; you have the product of that year of hard work. The Echo, a written and pictorial record of the activities, organizations, and personnel, is an attempt on the part of the Echo Staff to give you a composite book of memories to be cherished throughout the years. The members of the Preparatory Echo Staff, in collaboration with the college, help to plan, compose and distribute this annual record of activities. They have worked together in obtaining photographs, writing copy, and organizing lay-outs. The Prep editor, Mary Howdle, was chosen by the staff of 1955-56. The remaining staff members were appointed in the fall of 1956. Dr. Paul Cooke is the faculty advisor for The Echo.

Editor Yeisley, co-editor Deem.

Preposterous

The Preposterous, organized in 1956, is the Preparatory school paper. It is written and read with great enthusiasm. House news, sports, and different social events are the regular features in the newspaper. There are fourteen reporters, often called "snoopers," who work in their separate fields gathering the news.

Darling, Brockett, Howdle, Boldes, Wallace, Miss Little, Walden, Barrett, West, Edmiston, Fletcher.

National Honor Society

National Honor Society, which was started in 1956 at Monticello Preparatory School, is an honorary organization for both Juniors and Seniors. The members are chosen by the faculty on the basis of their character, leadership, service to the school, and grade average. Last year, with the help of Miss Little, their sponsor, the National Honor Society organized an Honor System for the Preparatory students. This year they have been working to keep the student aware of the importance of it.

National Thespian Society

In 1956 the Preparatory Students at Monticello had their first opportunity to join a troop of the National Thespian Society. Members of the society must take an active part in play production and acting in order to gain enough points for this honorary dramatic society. Miss Royer serves as sponsor for the group.

Fletcher, Brockett, Morgan, Boldes, Martin, Merchant, Nye, Howdle, Haren, Wallace.

Compton, J. Bailey, K. Bailey, Boldes, Brickenkamp, S. Walker, Shanahan, Jankowsky, Martin, Dellert, Wier, Wallace, Morgan, Brockett, Haren, Merchant, Pierson, Jones, Jacobs, Loebe, Simpkins, Johnson, Newton, Reddig, Hartman, Blackwell, West, Mason, Patton, Stinchfield, Bishop, Roberts, S. Smith, Castor, Cummings, Vieman, Fairchild, Day, Eggleston, Bundesen, Grisham, Fitch, Fletcher, Williams, Morrison, Crawford, Nye, Friedman, Darling, H. Smith, Yeasley, Kaiser, Huppert, Mishlove, Campbell, Covell, Grimwood, Kelly, Howdle.

One of the largest organizations in Monticello Preparatory School is the Drama Club. Its members consist of students greatly interested in the fields of dramatics, radio, and television.

Among the various activities throughout the year are two plays given by the Drama Club members. With the help of their sponsor, Miss Royer, they learn to solve some of the problems of producing a play, and then gain a better understanding of the techniques of acting. The fall play, "The Thirteenth Chair," was a big success.

Art Club

The Art Club, under the supervision of Mr. Madden, is open for membership to anyone interested in doing art work. One of the main purposes of the club has been to furnish a means of bringing art to students who, otherwise, would have no contact with the department. It also furthers the appreciation of art. They meet once a week to discuss the various aspects of art.

Glee Club

Under the direction of Miss Betty Dustin Myers, thirty-eight girls in the Preparatory Glee Club perform in various concerts and Chapel services. One of the most memorable events in the Glee Club's agenda is the annual College-Prep Christmas Concert at the Candlelight Service.

The French Club, sponsored by Mrs. Ressencourt, is composed of those students who are enrolled in French courses.

The purpose of this organization is to make practical use of the language through conversation and to introduce French cultural material. Various activities of the club include attending French movies and lectures. They also read aloud French magazines and learn some of the popular French songs.

(Bottom)

Sponsored by Mrs. Ressencourt, the Spanish Club is an informal group of Spanish students who enjoy speaking the language. The group studies customs in the various Spanish speaking countries. This year they have also enjoyed many films concerning these countries. Both College and Preparatory Students are eligible for membership.

SPORTS

Rocking Horse

The preparatory horse-lovers have organized the Rocking Horse, a club designed to promote interest and to further experience in horsemanship. With the help of Miss Gottlieb, the members prepare for shows and gymkhanas and participate in activities to develop sportsmanship and riding ability.

McKee, Lightner, Hawks, Eddy, Teale, Hall, Compton, Light, Caster, Luthe, Macklin, Yates.

Fitch, Flato, Yates, Merchant, Brockett, Light, Price, Teale, Hawks, Walden, Bookey, Boldes, Morgan.

Aqua Ducks

Aqua Ducks, an organization consisting of experienced swimmers, works throughout the year in co-operation with the College Marlin Club on the annual water pageant presented each March. Original numbers for the show are developed by the students. Preparatory Students try out in the early fall for membership. Miss Beverly Mackin supervises the group.

Among the more popular sports in the preparatory school is fencing. It is offered to the students during the winter months and is very helpful to them in developing their coordination.

This year the preparatory students organized a basketball team. Any student that had attended "Voluntary Sports" after school was eligible for the team. The highlight of the year was the college vs. prep. game.

STUDENT LIFE

Darling, Miss "Dusty" Myers, Tang, Kiser.

Our Friend

Girls gather in Dusty's office throughout the day to chat or receive help and advice. Her door is always open. Preps can be seen going in and out with news and talk.

The W.M.A. Ball

Each year the Preparatory School students, along with the Western Military Academy cadets, look forward to the annual Military Ball held at the Academy. This year the queen was Mary Ann Laro, who was attended by Linda Fitch and Sue Lightner.

Reflections

These are the things I want to remember: the hours I spent the bridge table in our smoker hoping for that one exception "hand," the toilsome job of taking notes for my term paper and the satisfaction that came when I handed it in as a finished product long hours of work, the many nights I crept quietly down into the smoker to supposedly study for that all important test only to find myself laughing the late hours away, and then the year suddenly came to an end as I received my Senior roses on Class Day. My only hope is that the light from these memories will not grow dim.

We Dim Our Lights

So comes the time to dim the flame
For what is bright must always wane.
But the dying fire leaves much behind
In the glowing embers, memories find.

The warmth of friendship never dies
Neither time nor space can break the ties.

Memories Flicker of the years now passed
From these reflections are shadows cast.

Though through the years, white turns to gray,
Though thoughts grow dim and dreams decay.
There yet remains in the dark of night,
A shining ray — Our guiding Light.
